SUBJECT: Senator McIntyre's P.L. 91-441

1. Legally amendment does not apply to us (JSW and Ollie agree).
2. But we follow same rules and use DOD type auditors and abide by the concept involved. (Perhaps it would be worthwhile to come up with the figures to prove it).

3. Obviously, we should be alert to possibility that DOD disallowed expenditures might be shifted to other customers such as ourselves, and two above should provide adequate assurance.

5. The McIntyre amendment is in section 203. Section 204 applies a some what less formidable restraint on research projects or study. Perhaps  might also like to have something prepared on that subject.

6. I assume that Col. White can adequately handle question: What are your procurment authorities?
